

ARTS IN THE SCHOOL PROGRAM!!!

Have you ever heard about the Nigerian Talking Drum Ensemble? If not, now is the time to contact us so that your school can start to reap the benefits of this extraordinary program.

The enthusiasm created by the drumming, dancing and the singing provides everything your students need in their studies; regular attendance, habitual, study behavior, concentration, high-self esteem, and willingness to take challenges, enthusiastic to become well-rounded in their school works. These values are embedded in the music, dance, and songs.

The Nigerian talking drum Ensemble is highly rated from California Arts Council to the Department of Los Angeles Cultural Affairs, from the Alaskan Arts in the school Program to Memphis University, from Korea to India and from California Colleges to UC Regents.

The Nigerian Talking Drum program is multidimensional, and very diverse in its operations "Footsteps are left all over in the schools that offer special program." - Do Not Leave Any Child Behind. Bring the Nigerian Talking Drum Ensemble to your school. The experience is wonderful and our method of teaching is unique. We know how to make your students work without feeling tired. The Proof is in the pudding.

For more information Contact

Francis Awe

francisawe@gmail.com